Public invited to view lighted ships

The general public is invited to attend Naval Station Ingleside's annual ships' lighting contest Thursday, Dec. 8. Gates open at 5:30 p.m. and close at 7:30 p.m.

Carolers will serenade, as you stroll along the waterfront viewing the mine warfare ships all "decked out" in their holiday finery. Santa will visit. Hot chocolate and cookies will be provided. Judges will announce the winners at 7 p.m. based on Christmas theme, personal crew involvement, display of lights and use of ship's resources.

All visitors need to bring picture I.D. Vehicles that do not have a base sticker will be directed to enter the base through the 1069 Gate, where personnel will be following standard security procedures.
